

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Karen Garcia
940/898-3456
kgarcia@mail.twu.edu

TWU's Houston Center presents

Annual Parry Distinguished Lectureship

Global Trends: Implications for Education, Research, Practice, and Policy

Hester Klopper (PhD, MBA, FANSA, FAAN, ASSAf)

On Thursday, March 3rd from 4:30-7:00pm Texas Woman's University, College of Nursing at Houston will host Dr. Hester Klopper as part of the Annual Parry Distinguished Lectureship series.

Dr. Hester Klopper hails from South Africa and is an acclaimed international academic and professional leader with extensive experiences in global health, public health, policy development, nursing, and health care. Dr. Klopper is the Chief Executive Officer of FUNDISA (Forum for University Nursing Deans in South Africa) and the Immediate Past President of Sigma Theta Tau International (2013-2015). Dr. Klopper holds a Master's degree (1992) and PhD (1994) from University of Johannesburg and a MBA (2002) from Luton University in the UK.

The presentation is scheduled from 4:30 to 7pm in the Houston Endowment Auditorium located at TWU's Houston Center, 6700 Fannin St. in the Texas Medical Center. Registration is complimentary. For more information or to register, call (713) 794-2100 or email TWUNursingHouston@twu.edu.